

Sex Therapy Professional Certification Course in Hong Kong

| | | |
|--|--|---------------------------|
| Hosting Institution | Hong Kong Association of Sex Educators, Researchers & Therapists (HKASERT) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> AASECT accredited Institutional Provider of Continue Education | |
| Next Course (tentative): | 2011 | |
| Number of participants | Max. 30 | |
| Admission specifications | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants must hold a recognised master degree, and must be a practicing professional with minimum 2 years working experience in one of the following fields: medicine, nursing, rehabilitation, social work, psychology or counselling. The course organisers reserve the right to accept or decline application without assigning any reason. | |
| Qualification & Expected professional recognition/accreditation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Eligibility to become a certified member of the Hong Kong Association of Sexuality Educators, Researchers and Therapists Eligibility to become a general member of American Association of Sexuality Educators, Counselors & Therapists (AASECT) Gain credits towards AASECT certification as sex therapist | |
| Modules & No. of contact hours | The course consists of four modules: 1. Sexual Attitudes Re-evaluation (SAR) (10 hours) 2. Lectures (120 hours) 3. Clinical supervision (20 hours, group & individual) 4. Self-directed study (40 hours clinical practice, quiz, book reports for 5 professional journal articles and 5 sexuality related textbooks) | |
| Mode of Delivery | Classroom-based | |
| Medium of Instruction | Bilingual (English and Cantonese/Chinese) | |
| Teaching methods | 130 hrs | Lecture/Seminar |
| | 10 hrs | Group supervision seminar |
| | 10 hrs | Individual supervision |
| Assessment method | A student must pass this component in order to obtain an overall pass grade | Weighting (%) |
| 90% Attendance | Yes | 0% |
| Continuing Assessment | | 100% |
| Supervision (20 hours) | Yes | 0% |